About Douglas County Senior Services Department

The purpose of the Douglas County Senior Services is to support and enhance a structure of social, protective and health services for seniors throughout the county. Douglas County Senior Services is one of seventeen Area Agencies on Aging (AAA) in Oregon and one of 600 located throughout the United States. This structure serves to provide an opportunity for continued independence, dignity and a higher quality of life for seniors, age 60 and over. The intent of Senior Services is to provide a comprehensive and coordinated plan of services, for older Oregonians, based on local community needs. Prioritizing the needs and strategies that best fit with our community and that also fit within the budgetary and resource realities of Douglas County.

About Douglas County

Douglas County Government employs approximately 800 full- and part-time employees in a wide variety of jobs. The Board of Commissioners, consisting of three full-time members, is the county's governing body. They provide a direct link between the citizens of Douglas County and their county government. The Board of Commissioners is responsible for: approving ordinances (county laws); adopting the county budget; setting standards for the use of county property; appointing non-elected officials to boards, commissions, and committees; and oversees all operations of the county.
